GLOBE-TROTTER

The Prince of Wales has returned to England, completing his journey round the world, a journey mostly through an empire on which "the sun never sets" and over which in the course of time he is expected to "rule." Although a British King in our time is but a dignified figure-head and not a real factor in the actual government, he is expected to know and to do much, and there can be little doubt that young Edward's education has been greatly advanced by what he saw and heard during his long journey. This was one of its objects, of course, but probably the chief end in view was to inspire loyalty to the empire and the throne among the far-scattered colonials by exhibiting before them a Prince whom it was possible for them to like and even to become fond of personally.

From all accounts this interesting young scion of royalty has accomplished a difficult feat; he has made a skeptical and somewhat indifferent generation of British colonials really proud of their Prince. And he appears to have done this not merely by his winning manner but by the employment of both brains and tact. For one thing, he is a better speaker than any royal person heard of in many years, and he stood up manfully to his tiresome job of listening alertly to practically the same address of welcome and making pretty much the same appropriate and pleasing response in one colonial city after another all the way round the world. The long journey—with little if anything in it to remind one of the ancient "royal progress"—of this well-bred, affable, even democratic young prince will be worth all it cost, both from the point of view of the not any too hopeful royalists of these times but of the practical British statesmen who plan to hold a vast empire together.

TUESDAY SHOOTING RESULTS IN MURDER

"badly is the boy hurt," and saying he wanted to get out to get back to work.

It is likely he will be committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury at the February term of court.

The body of Smith was taken to Crowley's undertaking room, where it was prepared for burial. Smith is a native of Hopkinsville, Ky., and it is likely the remains will be taken there for interment.

The first information of the shooting reached the police by a message to Henning's drug store asking for a policeman. Officer Murphy who was on duty there at the time, and who was talking with Burgess Woodward, answered the phone, and was told the circumstances.

Calling Chief Albright and telling him to rush to the scene he returned to his post and in company with Burgess Woodward boarded a passing automobile and started for Lock Four hill. Going up around the road they got out of the machine, and in a short time sighted Gray, who was just crawling under a fence. Gray saw the officers and endeavored to escape. He started through the bushes with Murphy and Woodward in pursuit. They saw some men hunting quite a distance ahead and Burgess Woodward called to them to stop Gray. Paul Manandise, one of the hunting party, getting sight of Gray, held him up at the point of the gun until the arrival of the officers, who put the handcuffs on him and brought him to the police station. Chief Albright was in a position to prevent the escape of Gray had he attempted to cross the road and get away toward Wolf Harbor.

A sister of Smith, the murdered man, arrived from Pittsburgh this morning, and will likely take charge of the remains of her brother. He lived in Hopkinsville, Ky., and had only returned to Charlevoi on Friday last.

MISFITS WINNERS OVER THE LUNKS

There was some bowling at the Flks Club last night and the contest was not decided until the last few minutes of play. Capt. Arch Osborne's "Lunks," getting away to a flying start, were compelled to bite the dust at the finish by Capt. Brown's "Misfits," who took two out of three games.

The "Lunks" looked like a million dollars after the first game, which they won by a margin of 94 pins, but this decisive defeat seemed to spur the "Misfits" on to greater things, and they came through in the second game with a lead of nine pins.

Then the contestants buckled down for the home stretch. Each took an additional hitch in their belts for the final heat, which was taken by the "Misfits" in a decisive manner they trimming the "Lunks" by 94 pins. Lew Phillips rolled a nice game for the "Misfits," while Bailey run up a total of 168 pins for the same team in the last game. Worthington also came through nicely, while Capt. Osborne, Bateman and W. Pieper all turned in nice scores for the "Lunks." Tonight Capt. Russell's "Wahoos" play Capt. Campbell's "Oilers," game being called at 8:30 o'clock. Score:

MRS. THOMAS' WORD TO WOMEN

Tells of the Great Good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Her.

Mrs. Thomas, Mich.—"About a year after my second baby was born I suffered with dizziness every morning so that I could hardly get around. I had heard from other women about your medicine and had read letters about it so my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I took according to directions and in a short time I was entirely relieved. I also took the Vegetable Compound before my last baby came and am thankful to say that it relieved my sufferings very much and I shall never be without it at such times. I have told others of its great worth and shall keep on telling it."—Mrs. Ed. Thomas, Box 184, Morris, Mich.

Women should not continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like free confidential advice address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Yes you can have such a phonograph

LET us show you the Certificate of Authenticity which Madame Odette Le Fontenay has signed. This is the outstanding fact which comes to you out of the memorable tone-test recital given last Thursday in High School Auditorium. A new era in music is here. Mr. Edison has lifted the phonograph to the dignity of a new art.

You can no longer be satisfied with a phonograph that imitates. Now, you want a phonograph that equals the human voice.

You know there is such a phonograph. Mr. Edison made an astounding test with the Official Laboratory Model of the New Edison to prove it. Charlevoi heard the New Edison RE-CREATE Madame LeFontenay's voice in direct comparison with LeFontenay's living voice. So realistic was the New Edison's performance that no one in the entire audience could distinguish it from Madame LeFontenay's living voice.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

You yourself can have such a phonograph. Let us show you exact duplicates of the Official Laboratory Model, which triumphed in the tone-test. Let us show you the Certificate of Authenticity, which Madame LeFontenay has signed, after inspecting these instruments, and in which she declares that these instruments are the equals in every respect of the instrument used in the tone-test.

You can buy your New Edison on a Budget Plan which so distributes the payments that you'll hardly feel them

LOWER PRICE LEVELS REACT TO THE PUBLIC'S ADVANTAGE

Our policy of reducing prices just as soon as market conditions permit, which, was outlined in an issue of last weeks paper, is now manifesting itself in form of a sale with new prices governing our merchandise. To quote part of our announcement "We will adjust our prices in accordance with each item, as it is affected." The result is to be seen in this issue of the "Herald"

We have NOT purchased any inferior goods or "Samples" that would permit an offering to the public at low prices as a cloak to disguise our motive, but to the contrary are offering our regular stock of merchandise that we always carry and upon which we base our past, present and future reputation. A look will convince you.
